Last week President Obama's signed the National Defense Authorization Act – also known as the NDAA – which allows the indefinite detention of American citizens without trial by the United States military.

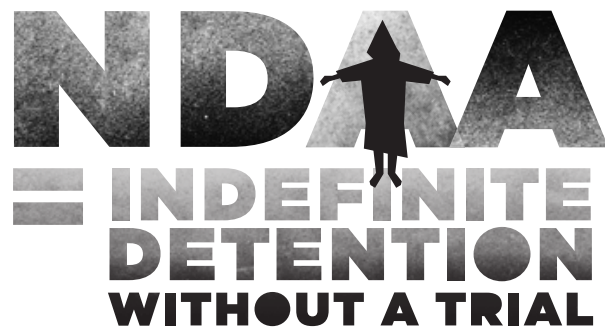

Last year the FBI raided and subpoenaed 23 anti-war and international international solidarity activists as part of a national investigation of the peace movement. Across the country the Occupy Wall Street movement is fighting for the very right to protest.

Take a stand for civil liberties and against political repression by telling President Obama and his campaign that our rights and our vote will not be taken for granted.

Protest NDAA, Tell Obama:
Stop Support for Political Repression!
